

"FROCKS OF COTTON WHEN WINDS BLOW? NEVER!" SAY WOMEN

Patriotism a Fine Sentiment, But Think of Those Cold, Cold Blizzards Coming This Way.

Philadelphia women, unlike their Southern sisters, are apparently not making any plans to substitute cotton garments for their silk and woolen winter apparel, in order to relieve the tenseness of the cotton situation.

Down South the women and girls have formed leagues which are advocating the wearing of cotton this winter. Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of the Speaker, has announced her intention of having only cotton clothing in her wardrobe, and many of the Congressional women have followed her example.

"I have just come back from the Fall River cotton mills," said one buyer, "and there I found two-thirds of the mill hands idle. There's no demand and they have nothing to do."

Another declared that women were buying as little silk and wool as cotton. "You're going to see more women wearing their last year's clothes this season than ever before. The financial situation is bad, and the women are feeling it as well as the rest of us."

But a woman in the vicinity came to the defense of her sex. "Immediately," she said, "it's one of good sound common sense. Remember the blizzard we had here last winter, well, fancy wearing a cotton frock through that."

All the men who are in charge of the cotton goods departments of the large shops declare that not only has the sale of cotton dress goods not increased, but it has actually decreased.

"I have just come back from the Fall River cotton mills," said one buyer, "and there I found two-thirds of the mill hands idle. There's no demand and they have nothing to do."

Another declared that women were buying as little silk and wool as cotton. "You're going to see more women wearing their last year's clothes this season than ever before. The financial situation is bad, and the women are feeling it as well as the rest of us."

But a woman in the vicinity came to the defense of her sex. "Immediately," she said, "it's one of good sound common sense. Remember the blizzard we had here last winter, well, fancy wearing a cotton frock through that."

All the men who are in charge of the cotton goods departments of the large shops declare that not only has the sale of cotton dress goods not increased, but it has actually decreased.

"I have just come back from the Fall River cotton mills," said one buyer, "and there I found two-thirds of the mill hands idle. There's no demand and they have nothing to do."

Another declared that women were buying as little silk and wool as cotton. "You're going to see more women wearing their last year's clothes this season than ever before. The financial situation is bad, and the women are feeling it as well as the rest of us."

But a woman in the vicinity came to the defense of her sex. "Immediately," she said, "it's one of good sound common sense. Remember the blizzard we had here last winter, well, fancy wearing a cotton frock through that."

PENN MEN SENDING WORDS OF CHEER TO "PROFS" IN THE WAR

Christmas Postcards for "Private" Paul Cret, "Sergeant" Amal and Dr. F. di Urban.

Although the Christmas holidays are more than two months off, students of the University of Pennsylvania have begun to mail Christmas cards to three members of the faculty now performing military duty in Europe. Souvenir postcards, bearing photographs of the University, are being mailed daily.

Students in the classes of the professors who have donned the uniform of their native country, said today that they were sending their good wishes early in the season because they feared the cards would be delayed in transmission.

Serving as a private at Grenoble, in the heart of the French Alps, is Paul Philippe Cret, professor of design in the School of Architecture, and recognized as one of the foremost architects and expert authority on municipal planning in America.

Another professor who is serving in the French army as a sergeant is Prof. Leon Eugene Arnal, assistant professor in design in the Architectural School. The last heard of Professor Arnal was that he was awaiting orders with a battalion of men.

Dr. Fred M. Urban, assistant professor of psychology, and perhaps the greatest authority in America on psycho-physics, is attached to the Austrian army. He is an Austrian by birth. He answered the call for recruits while in Brun, near Austerlitz, where he was visiting when the army was ordered to be mobilized.

HOME WEEK AND MADRI GRAS FOR NORTH PHILADELPHIA

Business Men Plan Carnival With Baby Contest and Parade.

Plans for the Home Week and Madri Gras to be held next week under the auspices of the North Philadelphia Business Men's Association are well under way.

G. A. Wick, chairman of the committee in charge of the carnival, announces that among the features of the week will be an industrial exhibit on October 26 and 27, a prize baby contest and parade on Wednesday evening, an industrial parade on Thursday evening, a car race in which members of the G. A. R. and Boy Scouts will take part to be held on Friday evening, which is to be Fraternal Night.

Following this, the King and Queen of the carnival, who will be elected in the course of the week, will be crowned. The feature of the closing day, October 31, is to be a Halloween parade.

Germantown avenue from Hunting Park avenue to Wayne Junction station is to be decorated with flags and bunting throughout the week of the carnival.

ENGINEERS OPPOSE LICENSE

Proposed Bill Shown to Be in Disfavor Generally.

The proposed bill to license civil, mechanical, electrical, mining and other engineers is disapproved, almost without exception, by officials of prominent engineering societies and the engineers themselves.

The members of the Engineers' Commission appointed by Governor Tener will report to him in the near future on the subject.

Engineers expressed their opinions of the proposed bill at a meeting of the commission held in the Engineers' Club yesterday. R. D. Morris, ex-president of the American Institute of Mining Engineers, declared he was opposed strongly to any legislation of the kind suggested.

"DOOR OF ALLIES" DEDICATED TODAY AT VALLEY FORGE

Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America Commemorate Services of Foreign Heroes in Revolutionary War.

The dedication of the "Door of the Allies," given by the Pennsylvania Chapter of the Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America to the Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

On the inside of the door is carved the insignia and motto of the society and bears this inscription: "Presented by the Pennsylvania Chapter, D. F. P. of America."

On each side the arms of Rochambeau, De Gouvion, Du Portail, D'Estaing, Lauzun and Pulaski. On the outside the arms of De Grasse, Lafayette, France (monarchy), Washington, United States of America, Von Steuben and DeKalb.

The arms were carved by Gerald Evans, and are painted in heraldic colors. The door opens from the chapel into the "Porch of the Allies."

The order of service for the dedication of the memorial by the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, Bishop Suffragan of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, is as follows: Hymn, "Onward, Christian Soldiers"; Psalm C, followed by the Creed; Lord's Prayer and prayer of dedication.

Mrs. Sara P. Snowden Mitchell, president of the Pennsylvania Chapter of the Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America, will then present the door.

The rector of the Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge, the Rev. W. Herbert Clark, will accept the door. The sentence of dedication will be read by Bishop Garland, as follows: "Almighty God, who from ancient times hast put it into the hearts of Thy people to make offerings unto Thee for Thy name for the use of Thy sanctuary, and who has been pleased at all times to accept gifts at their hands, we pray Thee to accept this memorial which we now set apart in Thy name. May Thy blessing rest on this gift and on the givers of it, that Thy church may be benefited, Thy kingdom made more worthy of Thy name, may be exalted and glorified continually. We ask this in the name and for the merits of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord."

"In the faith of Jesus Christ our Lord we dedicate this door in the Washington Memorial Chapel to the glory of God and in memory of the foreign allies who rendered valuable aid to Washington during the American War for Independence, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

After God's gracious blessing and protection we commit you. The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up His light and His countenance upon you and give you peace, both now and evermore. Amen."

"The Star-Spangled Banner" will then be sung and the address will follow, by Dean Andrew F. West, of Princeton University, also an address by Bishop Garland, concluding with prayers and the Recessional Hymn.

Refreshment tea will be served by the Ladies of the Guild. All the patriotic societies will be represented. Mrs. Henry Boynton, on the national board of the Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America, expects to be present.

Crowell, State regent of Pennsylvania, D. A. R., will also be present, and the Rev. J. C. Harrison, president of the Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, will be present.

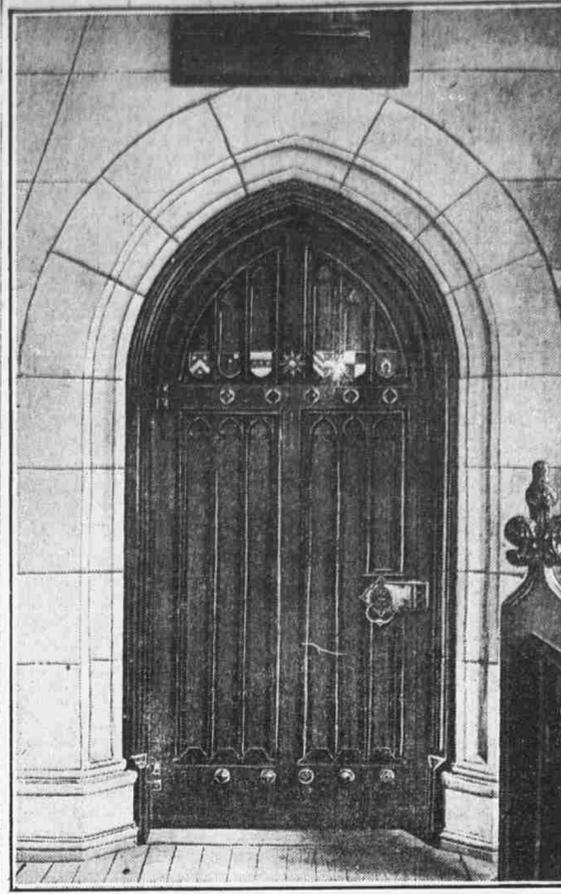

Among the prominent guests will be Mrs. Thomas Roberts, Mrs. J. B. Lippincott, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lea, Dr. and Mrs. Stricker Cole, Mrs. J. Harrison Smith, Mrs. D. Phoenix Ingraham, president of the New York Chapter of the Society of D. F. P. of America, and Mrs. C. C. Harrison.

"BILLY" SUNDAY CONVERTS WILL SPEAK AT GLENOLDEN

Members of Big Contingent Coming Here by Special Train.

Glenolden today is planning to give a rousing reception to four "Billy" Sunday "trail-hitters," who will speak here next Sunday in the Congregational Church.

The church people are enthusiastic over the work of the baseball evangelist, and when they learned the Rev. George D. Dowe intended to bring 100 of the Sunday converts to Philadelphia by special train next Saturday, they requested a visit from some of the laymen preachers.

"DOOR OF THE ALLIES" DEDICATED TODAY Pennsylvania Chapter of the Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America officially presented this doorway, done by Samuel Yellin, to the Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge, in commemoration of the work done by foreign countries in assisting this country during the Revolution.

PHILADELPHIA WOMEN AIM TO ORGANIZE RELIEF WORK

Help Will Be Afforded Needy in All Countries Alike.

Philadelphia society women are seeking to perfect an organization of all committees soliciting contributions for the people made destitute by the war in Europe.

While members of the committees will all be Philadelphia women, it is planned to enroll as many as possible on each committee who were abroad this summer and who know best the pressing needs of the wounded and non-combatants.

The first subcommittee will be known as the "Committee of Mercy" and will solicit funds to aid the non-combatants in Europe. The second will solicit for the International Red Cross while the third will endeavor to help those in this country who have suffered from the effects of the war.

While members of the committees will all be Philadelphia women, it is planned to enroll as many as possible on each committee who were abroad this summer and who know best the pressing needs of the wounded and non-combatants.

The first subcommittee will be known as the "Committee of Mercy" and will solicit funds to aid the non-combatants in Europe. The second will solicit for the International Red Cross while the third will endeavor to help those in this country who have suffered from the effects of the war.

While members of the committees will all be Philadelphia women, it is planned to enroll as many as possible on each committee who were abroad this summer and who know best the pressing needs of the wounded and non-combatants.

The first subcommittee will be known as the "Committee of Mercy" and will solicit funds to aid the non-combatants in Europe. The second will solicit for the International Red Cross while the third will endeavor to help those in this country who have suffered from the effects of the war.

While members of the committees will all be Philadelphia women, it is planned to enroll as many as possible on each committee who were abroad this summer and who know best the pressing needs of the wounded and non-combatants.

The first subcommittee will be known as the "Committee of Mercy" and will solicit funds to aid the non-combatants in Europe. The second will solicit for the International Red Cross while the third will endeavor to help those in this country who have suffered from the effects of the war.

While members of the committees will all be Philadelphia women, it is planned to enroll as many as possible on each committee who were abroad this summer and who know best the pressing needs of the wounded and non-combatants.

The first subcommittee will be known as the "Committee of Mercy" and will solicit funds to aid the non-combatants in Europe. The second will solicit for the International Red Cross while the third will endeavor to help those in this country who have suffered from the effects of the war.

MUSIC IN PHILADELPHIA

The Behrens Opera Club in "Martha" at the Academy Tonight.

The local season of grand opera will open this evening at the Academy of Music with the presentation, by the Behrens Opera Club, of Flotow's interesting but neglected work, "Martha."

Unaffected by the war, the company is "unable to adhere to its original plans, both as to artists and repertoire." Two novelties of special interest are promised.

The first subcommittee will be known as the "Committee of Mercy" and will solicit funds to aid the non-combatants in Europe. The second will solicit for the International Red Cross while the third will endeavor to help those in this country who have suffered from the effects of the war.

While members of the committees will all be Philadelphia women, it is planned to enroll as many as possible on each committee who were abroad this summer and who know best the pressing needs of the wounded and non-combatants.

The first subcommittee will be known as the "Committee of Mercy" and will solicit funds to aid the non-combatants in Europe. The second will solicit for the International Red Cross while the third will endeavor to help those in this country who have suffered from the effects of the war.

While members of the committees will all be Philadelphia women, it is planned to enroll as many as possible on each committee who were abroad this summer and who know best the pressing needs of the wounded and non-combatants.

The first subcommittee will be known as the "Committee of Mercy" and will solicit funds to aid the non-combatants in Europe. The second will solicit for the International Red Cross while the third will endeavor to help those in this country who have suffered from the effects of the war.

While members of the committees will all be Philadelphia women, it is planned to enroll as many as possible on each committee who were abroad this summer and who know best the pressing needs of the wounded and non-combatants.

The first subcommittee will be known as the "Committee of Mercy" and will solicit funds to aid the non-combatants in Europe. The second will solicit for the International Red Cross while the third will endeavor to help those in this country who have suffered from the effects of the war.

While members of the committees will all be Philadelphia women, it is planned to enroll as many as possible on each committee who were abroad this summer and who know best the pressing needs of the wounded and non-combatants.

The first subcommittee will be known as the "Committee of Mercy" and will solicit funds to aid the non-combatants in Europe. The second will solicit for the International Red Cross while the third will endeavor to help those in this country who have suffered from the effects of the war.

NATIONAL OYSTER WEEK EVENT FOR BIVALVE LOVERS

This Is When the Choicest Morsels of the Beds Are Shipped to Philadelphia.

Oyster eaters today began to observe National Oyster Week. No mention of this event appears in the current encyclopedias, but oyster dealers contend that the best oysters from beds all over the country reach Philadelphia during the last week of October.

Shrewsbury oysters are fond of porthouse steaks, chops, hamburger steak, and other popular dishes have turned their appetites oysterward. Restaurants and old-fashioned oyster stands are doing a rushing business in oysters.

All the favorite dishes containing oysters are being prepared by chefs and cooks. Some of the dishes which waiters were heard shouting into the kitchen were oyster pie, oyster loaf, oyster a la California, oyster omelet, oyster cocktail, oyster pudding, oyster a la St. Louis and oyster sandwiches.

During the coming oyster season a new oyster cocktail will be introduced in this city. It is called the "Bloodhound oyster cocktail." This new delicacy is said to have been originated in the West. It consists of four oysters mixed with juice of a raw tomato and heavily supplied with various sorts of spices.

Oysters from the western shore are also expected here before the end of this month. The Lynn Haven oysters won't be ready for the market until before the early part of November. Blue Points from Blue Point, L. I., arrived in Philadelphia in the early part of October.

Discussing oysters, the manager of a prominent Broad street restaurant today said: "Oysters are nutritious and healthful because they are easily digested. They are also cheap, and many economical families will buy oysters this season. The public at large have become convinced that oysters, besides being an appetizer, is also a staple food."

URGES SUNDAY SCHOOL OFFICIALS TO CO-OPERATE

The Rev. A. J. Ferry Speaks on Behalf of Presbytery.

"If Sunday schools are to do their greatest good and their progress is to be given full credit in the synod and general assembly of the Presbyterian Church, it is essential that the officials exert greater efforts for co-operation with the Sunday School Committee of the Philadelphia Presbytery."

This statement was made by the Rev. A. J. Ferry, chairman of the Sunday School Committee of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, at a meeting of the Superintendents' Association in Trinity Church, Kensington, last night. He urged that the officials adopt methods that will assure general co-operation with the committee and Presbytery.

There were about 100 superintendents in attendance, and besides the talk by Rev. Mr. Ferry, there were speeches by President Chessman A. Herlick, of Girard College, and by the Rev. James Ramsey Swain, pastor of the Woodland Church. Mr. Swain also spoke of the need of greater co-operation. The addresses seemed to indicate that the lack of co-operation was due largely to indifference.

"BATHTUB TRUST" EFFACED

Last Asset Gone When Unequipped "Factory" Burns in Camden.

The last of the assets of the bathtub trust is gone. Its passing was witnessed by several hundred citizens and the Camden Fire Department.

The trust put up a two-story frame building at River road and 18th street, Camden, in 1907, for the purpose of manufacturing tubs. The former anti-trust law interfered and the building was never fitted with machinery.

Last night it took fire and was demolished. There was no insurance on the building.

WAR TAX VIEWED BY BUSINESS MEN WITH COMPOSURE

Used to Bearing New Burdens and Not Disposed to Strenuous Objection to the Latest Addition.

"We are getting used to being taxed and also to constant legislation. Of course, we shall pay the new tax. There is nothing else for us to do."

This is the consensus of opinion as expressed today by Philadelphia commission merchants, brokers, bankers, brewers and others relating to the new war revenue bill, passed by the Senate Saturday night.

The bill did not cause much discussion among owners and officers of various industries whose goods will be taxed under the new measure.

Many of those who were interviewed refused to express their views until they had been officially notified of the passing of the bill.

Asked whether certain material which will be taxed would increase the price the usual answer given was: "We can't say."

Among those who will be taxed are pawnbrokers. Pawnshops will be taxed $50 a year. A. E. Frenchie, of the Cambria Loan and Storage Company, at 5th and Cambria streets, said: "The new tax is unfair and unjust. We are getting used to being taxed and also to various sorts of new legislation. There is nothing else for us to do but pay the new tax."

H. M. B. Bary, commission merchant, with offices in the Lafayette Building, said: "I will pay the new tax whether it is a good measure or not."

The tax on commission merchants is $20. John C. McDonald, of John J. McDonald, commission merchant, at 18 South Water street, said: "I haven't given the matter any thought."

A member of the Marmay Cigar Company, 126 South 4th street, said: "We have no opinion to offer."

An officer of the Bergdoll Brewery Company, at 29th and Parrish streets, said: "Nothing to say. We are used to hearing about new bills."

At the office of the John F. Betz Limited Brewery Company an officer said: "We haven't heard official about the new bill. We are used to new legislation."

The estimated maximum annual revenue under the war revenue bill is $107,000,000, while the minimum annual revenue is estimated at $22,000,000.

PATRIOTIC SONS CELEBRATE

Commemorate the 103d Anniversary of Yorktown's Fall Tonight.

In full uniform, members of the Allied Commanderies, Patriotic Sons of America, of Philadelphia and vicinity, tonight will celebrate the 103d anniversary of the fall of Yorktown at Lu Lu Temple, Broad and Spruce Garden streets. Following an oration by a prominent member of the order a reception and dance will take place.

Commander-in-Chief Charles H. Davis, the head of the order, will be present with his entire staff. Commanderies from Wilmington, Chester, Camden, Philadelphia, Merchantville, Pottsville and Norristown will be represented by large delegations.

POLICE CARNIVAL FRIDAY

Postponed Athletics on That Day, With Parade Saturday.

The police athletic carnival and review, which was postponed last week owing to bad weather, will be held on Friday and Saturday. Tickets for the former days will be good on the same days this week.

Several hundred policemen and many firemen will take part in the parade on Saturday.

Will Your Teeth Be as Good

10-20-30 years from now as they are today? The answer depends largely upon whether you use a dentifrice which stops "Acid-Mouth"—the cause of 95% of all tooth decay.

Pebecco Tooth Paste

gives you the best chance in the world to keep your teeth. Once the enamel is pierced, the bacteria of decay make short work of the soft, inside tooth. Don't let them!

"I like real toothbrushes—men and women who accomplish big things. It's just natural that I should like Pebecco. Pebecco for me, every time."

The taste of Pebecco is undisguised, unsweetened. Pebecco costs a trifle more. Comes in extra-large tubes. Use one-third of a brushful only. Manufactured by LEHN & FINK, New York. 1 and 3 St. Helen Street Montreal.

Don't Accept A Raglan When You Want a Balmacaan!

They're as different as chalk is from cheese! You'll find the right kind—At Perry's

Here are the noblest, swaggiest Balmacaan Overcoats you'll see in a day's journey! At Perry's

Beautiful imported fabrics at $18 and $20! Autumn mixtures in rich variety—At Perry's

Beautiful imported fabrics at $18 and $20! Autumn mixtures in rich variety—At Perry's

Beautiful imported fabrics at $18 and $20! Autumn mixtures in rich variety—At Perry's

Beautiful imported fabrics at $18 and $20! Autumn mixtures in rich variety—At Perry's

Candidum Lilies

The ever popular, fragrant, garden variety, also known as "Annun- ciator" and "Lily" and "M adonna Lily." It grows 3 to 4 feet high, and blooms outdoors in June. In masses or in rows the lilies are especially effective; the purity of their snow white flowers against surrounding shrubs, grass and trees is very telling. This lily thrives best where it can remain undisturbed for years.

Large Bulbs, 10c each—$1 doz.—$7.50 per hundred Get our Bulb Catalog Free

MICHELL'S SEED HOUSE

518 Market St. Phila.

Why Not Be Comfortable?

There is no part of your house furnishings that will cause more annoyance and irritation than inadequate or unsuitable LIGHTING FIXTURES

Our Display Rooms are stocked with a variety not generally seen—exclusively our creation.

The Horn & Brannen Mfg. Co.

Display Rooms and Workshop 427-433 N. Broad St. A Short Walk Along Automobile Row

Trousers A Specialty JONES

1116 Walnut Street

LEAVE TO ATTEND SYNOD

Presbyterian Pastors and Laymen Meet in Erie Tonight.

Many prominent Presbyterian clergymen and laymen left for Erie this morning to attend the annual meeting of the Synod of Pennsylvania, which opens tonight.

DIAMOND LA VALLIERES

We are showing many unique and beautiful designs in our new stock of these popular neck ornaments. Combination of $15.00 to $25.00. C. R. Smith & Son Market at Eighteenth Street